I Haricharansai -2520090048 (Section -11)

Creating AWS Account

Applying multi- factor authentication

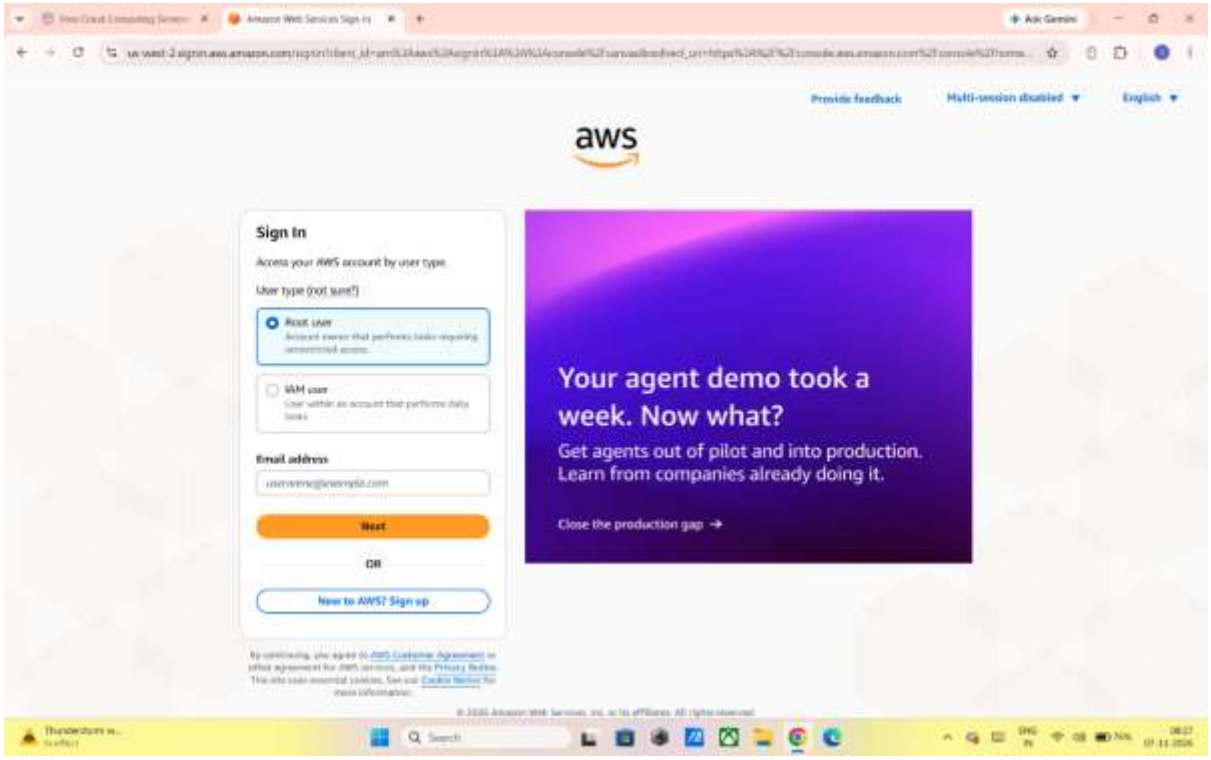

Dashboard of the AWS

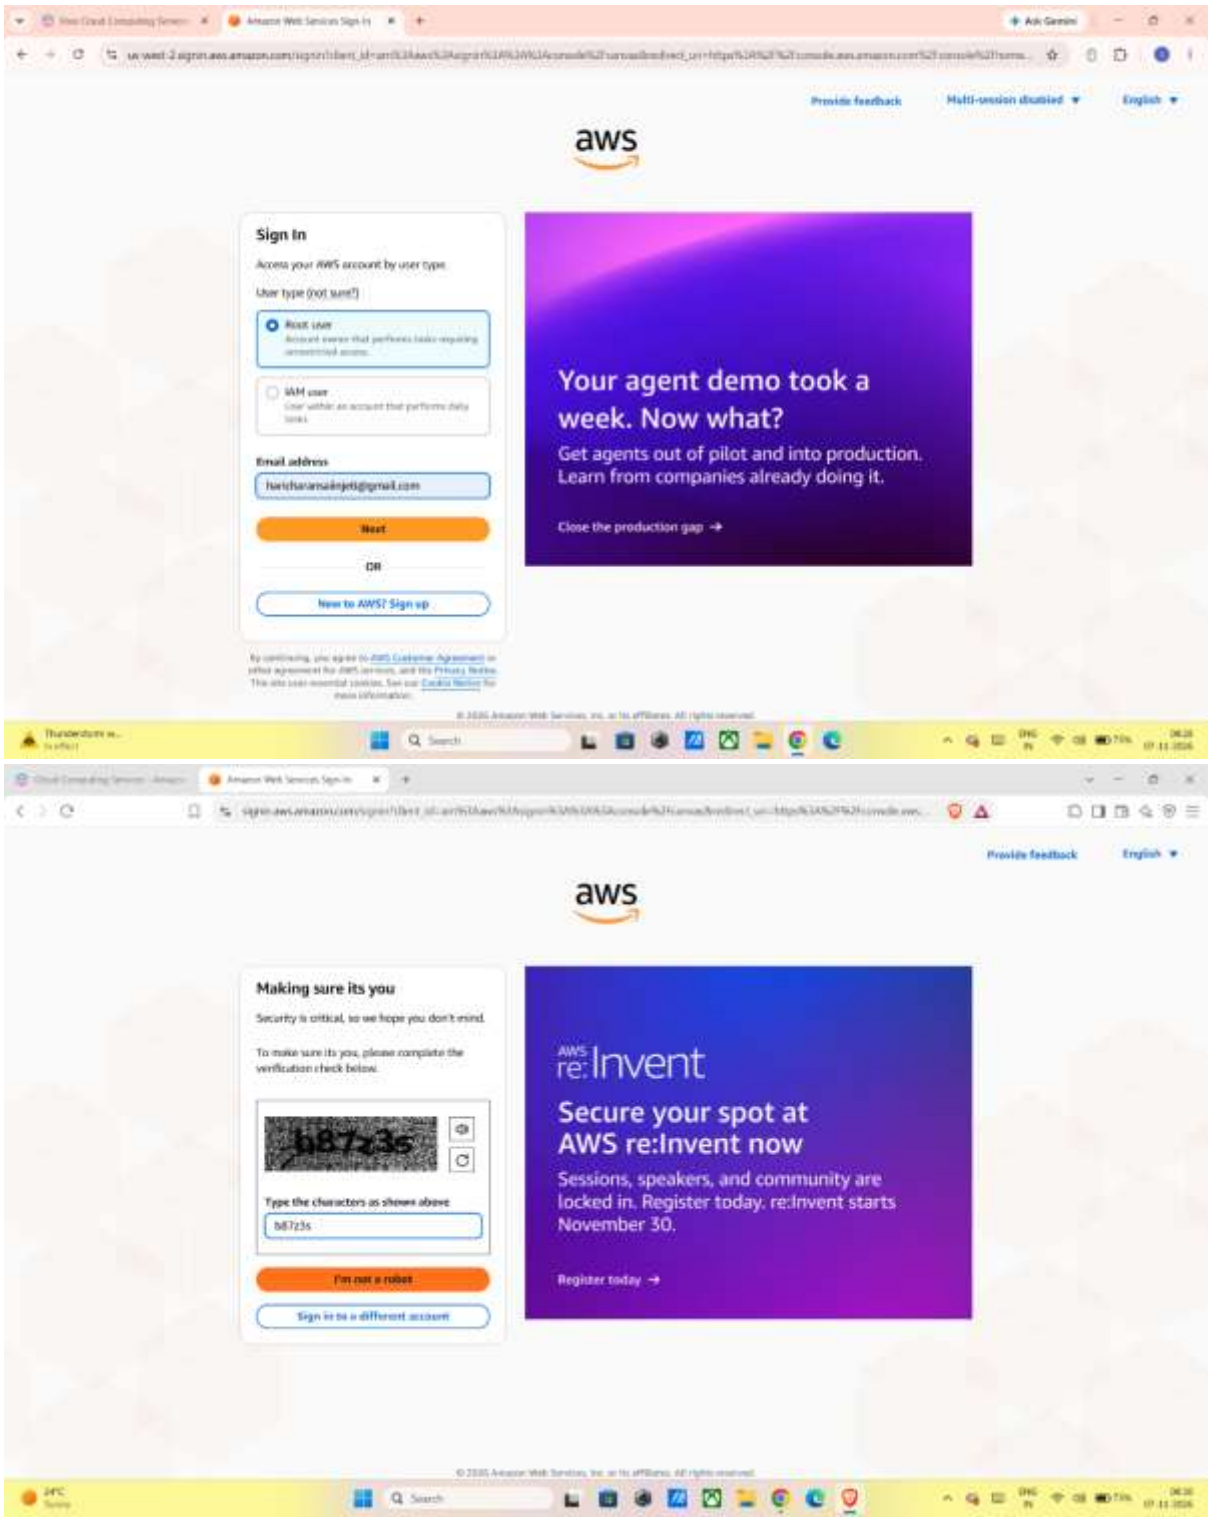

Sign in page

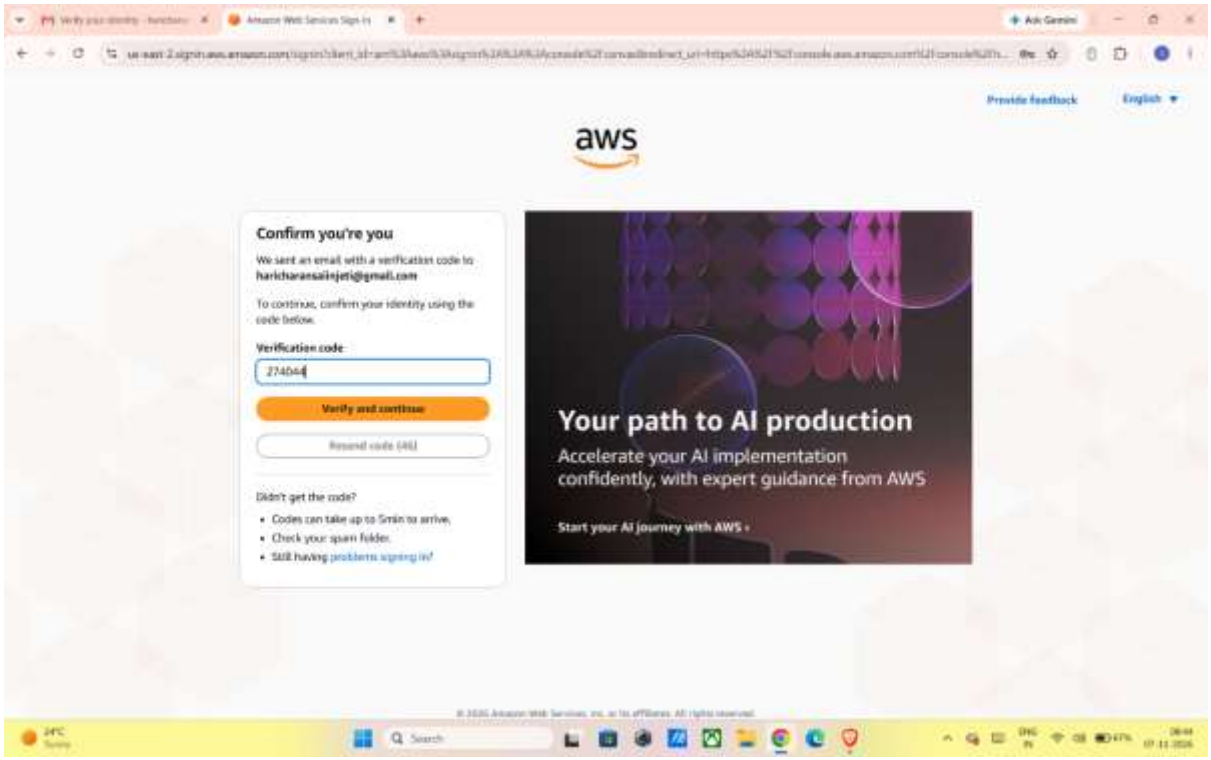

Here you need to singup first and next do the sign in

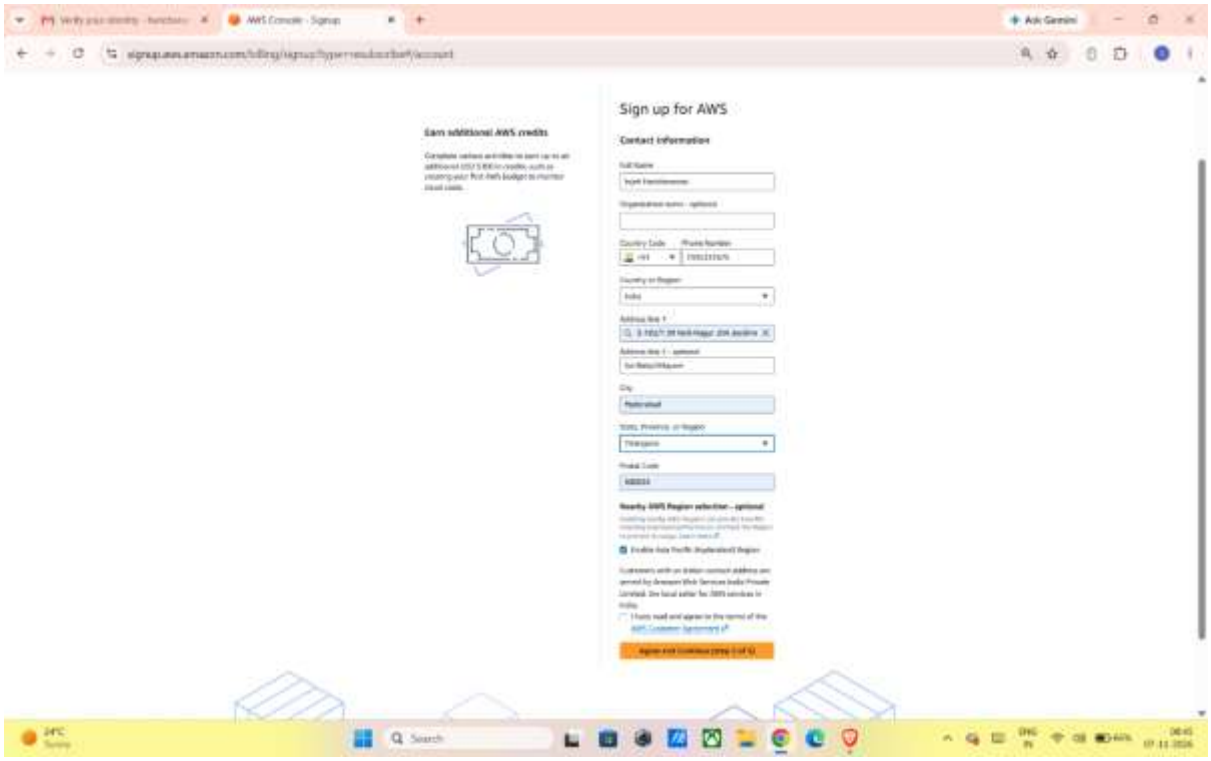

Choose the Root User option and give appropriate email id and follow the steps

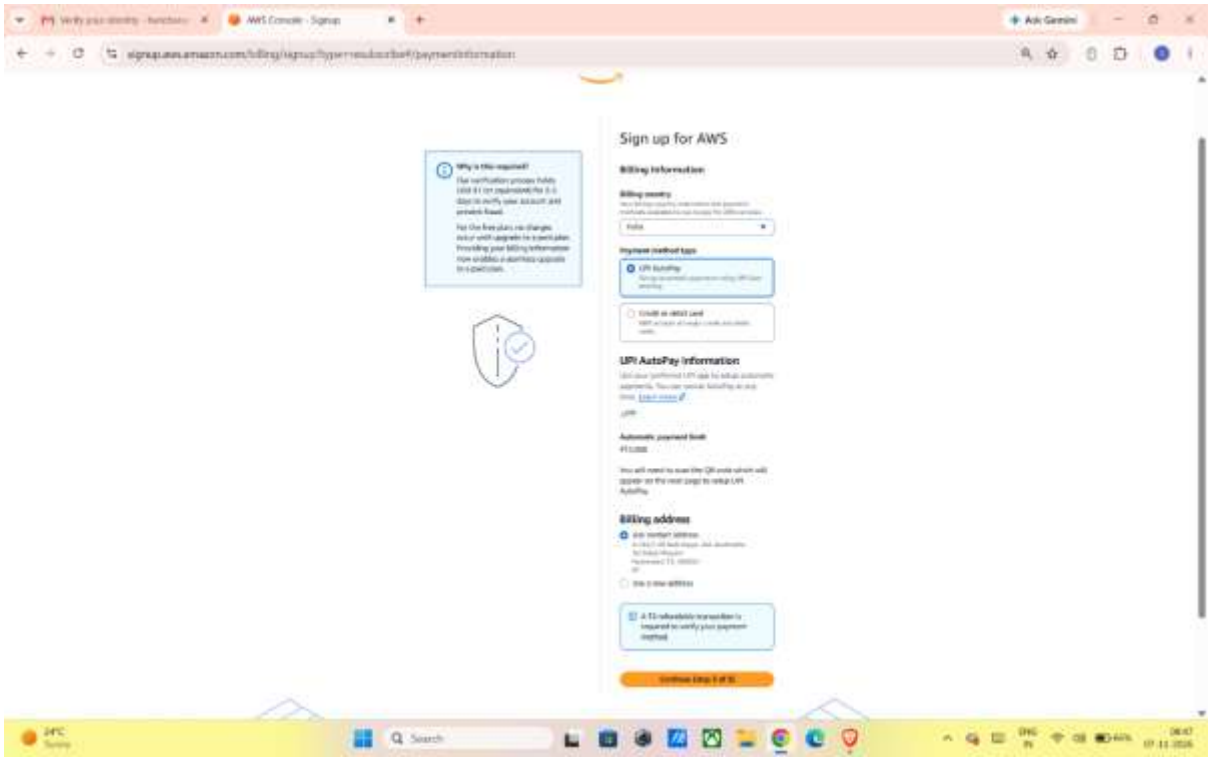

Complete the verification and go to the next step further

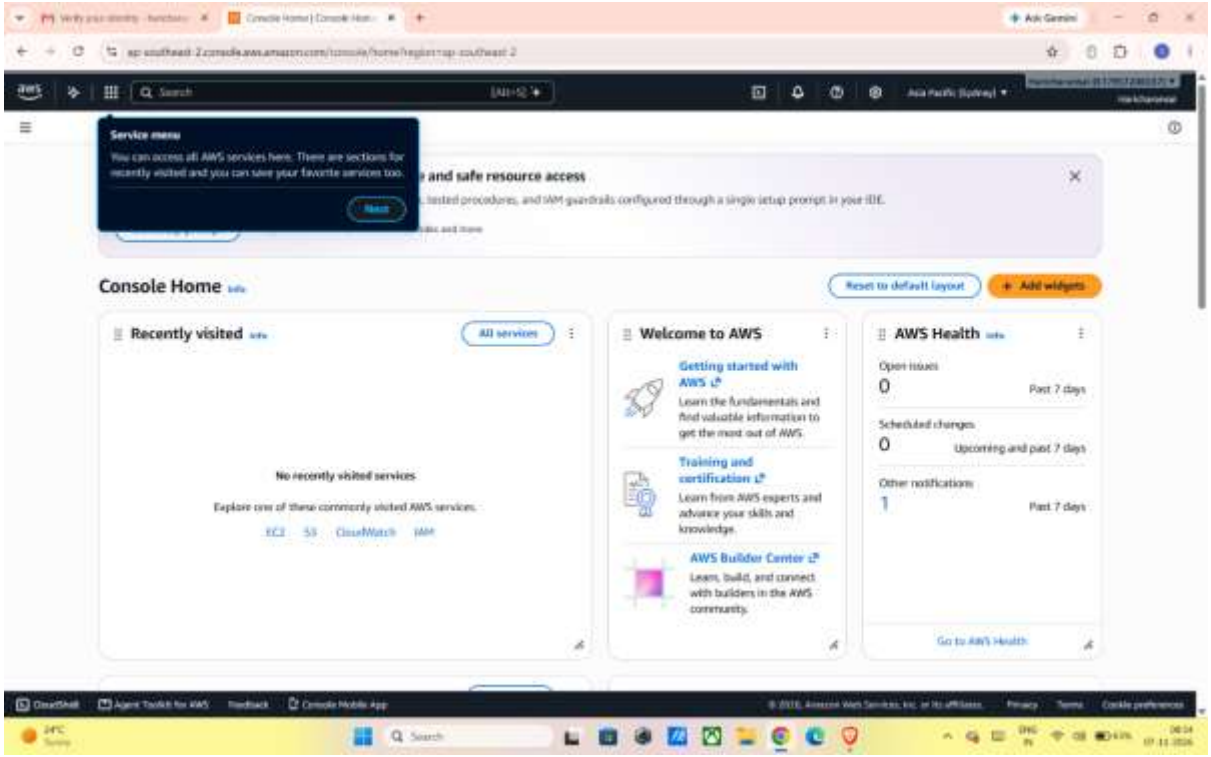

Fill out the address and other details and procced

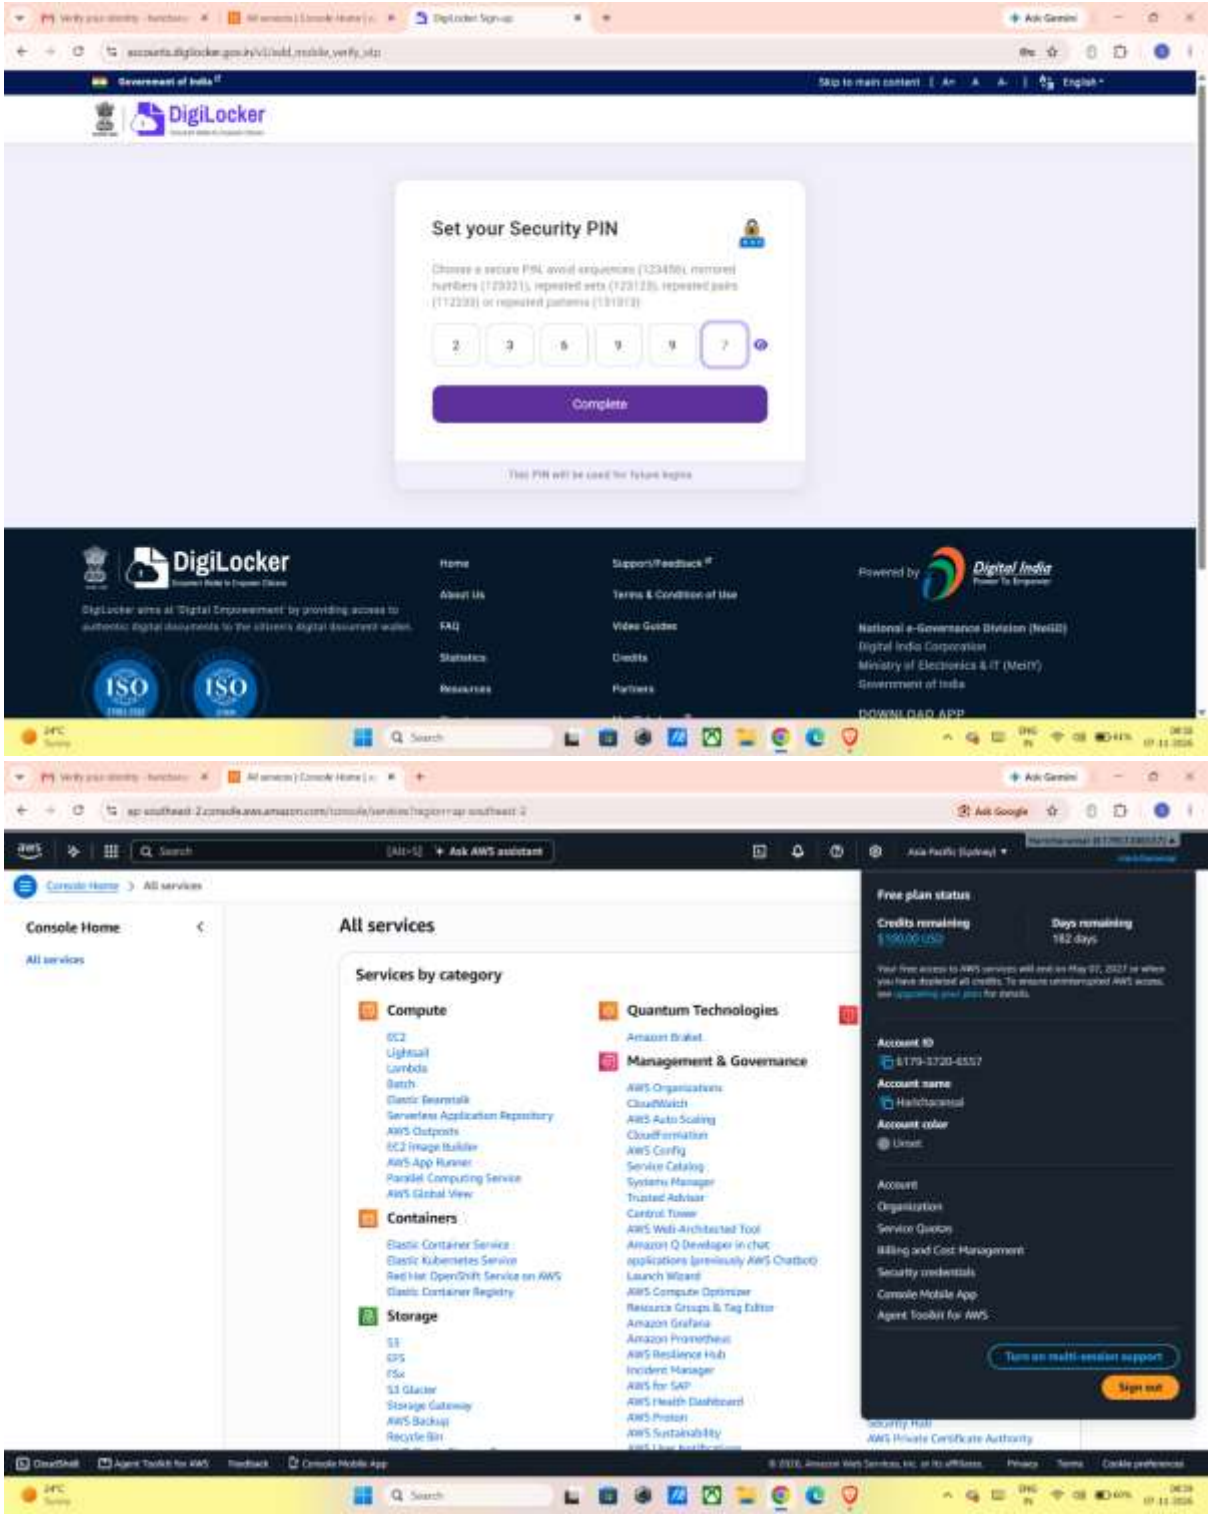

Use the Autopay and then go for the payment

Next comes the digi Locker authentication enter the requires details and grant permission for the consent and then agree to the terms and next continue

The registration was successfully completed then you can see the dashboard of AWS

Next to

To cross check go to

Console Home >> all services >> select any compute service >>check whether you can access it or not next the AWS registration is done !